EAGLETS.

James S. Hopkins would make a good and great circuit judge. He is a good lawyer and is popular with everybody.

One of the very best Aldermen in the City Council, is Edward F. Cuilleron. He has been longest in the public service of any member of the City Council and his usefulness to the people has been demonstrated over and over again.

Colonel Frank O. Lowden is looming up as a Republican candidate for governor.

Patrick J. Carr is making a good record as trustee of the Sanitary District of Chicago.

Collector Smetanka is making a good record in the Internal Revenue office.

Sidney Adler, the well known lawyer, is in the front rank of boomers of his native city—Chicago.

John Z. Vogelsang, the great restaurateur, deservedly stands in the front rank of the restaurant and hotel men of Chicago.

Lewis D. Stitt is one of the best aldermen in the council.

John F. Clare has thousands of friends who would like to see him elected judge.

John Powers has always served the people well as alderman from the Nineteenth ward.

W. L. Bodine, the efficient chief of the bureau of compulsory education, has made a nation wide name for his department.

William H. Weber always made a good public record.

Callistus S. Ennis, the president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, is always in the lead of every movement for the betterment of Chicago.

Joseph F. Haas, the popular former County Clerk, is one of the most valuable and clear sighted of Republican leaders.

Judge Charles A. Williams has pleased his friends by his fine record on the Municipal bench.

Edward J. Birk, the well known brewer, makes friends everywhere he goes and would make a great race for public office if he would allow his name to be used.

Judge William E. Dever is making a good record in the Superior Court.

Daniel Herlihy, who has been elected to the state senate, will make a fine record in that body. He is honest and able.

Judge John P. McGorty continues to gain the approbation of everybody for his work in the Circuit court.

Francis J. Houlihan is one of the most highly respected lawyers at the Chicago bar.

Judge Charles A. Williams has never disappointed the public. His record is clear.

Q. J. Chott, the well known lawyer, who made a good record on the justice bench, would make a good Municipal Judge.

Samuel W. Jackson, the well known lawyer, who was one of the best Presidents the Law Institute ever had, is frequently mentioned for judge.

Judge Harry P. Dolan has made a good record in the Municipal Court.

Illinois never had a better United States Senator than Albert J. Hopkins.

J. V. O'Donnell, the popular master-in-chancery and able lawyer, would make a good judge of the circuit court. His many friends are urging him to become a candidate at the election next June.

William H. Baker made a good record on the Sanitary Board.

H. Schmidt of 957 Center street has a host of friends who would back him for public office.

Addison street, one of the widest and longest east and west streets on the north and west sides, should be made a boulevard.

Charles S. Thornton, the well known lawyer, has honored every office he ever filled from president of the board of education to corporation counsel.

Henry J. Kolze made a splendid County Commissioner. He would make a good city treasurer.

County Treasurer Henry Stuckart is after the tax dodgers in good earnest.

Peter Reinberg is the right man in the right place as president of the county board.

The Home Brewery is not only Chicago's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 9210.—Advertisement.
